Fee Schedule

Department of Homeland Security
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

USCIS
Form G-1055

The table below presents the fees, currently in effect, for all U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) forms. Each application, petition, or request must be accompanied by the correct fee(s) unless you are exempt from paying the fee(s) or are eligible for a fee waiver. If the fee is incorrect, the application, petition, or request will be rejected.

Filing Online
You may file certain forms online as indicated in the table below. If you file your form online (see uscis.gov/file-online), the system will guide you through the process of paying your fees with a credit, debit, or pre-paid card. Bank account withdrawals are also available when paying online. There is often a $50 discount when filing a form online.

Filing by Mail
If you are filing your application, petition, or request by mail, please visit our website for filing guidance, at uscis.gov/forms/filing-guidance/tips-for-filing-forms-by-mail. Fees for applications or petitions can be paid by ACH debit or credit card:

1) Payments by Credit Card. You may pay your fee(s), using a credit card. Please see Form G-1450 (uscis.gov/g-1450), Authorization for Credit Card Transactions, for more information.

2) Payments by Automated Clearing House (ACH). You may pay your fee(s) by electronic funds transfer (EFT). Please see Form G-1650 (uscis.gov/g-1650), Authorization for ACH Transactions, for more information.

Filing at a USCIS Office
If you are filing your application or petition at a USCIS office, you must pay for the filing fee through pay.gov via a credit card or debit card, or electronic funds transfer (EFT) from a U.S. banking institution using Form G-1650, Authorization for ACH Transactions. Cash can never be used to pay a filing and/or biometric services fee, even when filing at a USCIS Office.

Fees required under Public Law 119-21 (Pub. L. 119-21)
Certain forms have an additional fee required along with any filing fee and are listed in the tables below. These fees are not waivable and must be paid by separate payment concurrent with any filing fee. If there is no filing fee for the form or you have applied for a fee waiver (see below) for the form's filing fee, you must still pay the additional fee mandated by Pub. L. 119-21.

NOTE: Pub. L. 119-21 fees adjust each year as required by law.

Fee Waivers
Certain filers may qualify for a fee waiver for certain forms. See Form I-912, Request for Fee Waiver, at uscis.gov/i-912 to determine if you are eligible for a fee waiver. If you are not eligible for a fee waiver, you must submit the correct fee(s). For most applications, you cannot request a fee waiver when filing online. You must file paper versions of Form I-912, or your written request for a fee waiver, and the form for which you are requesting a fee waiver. You may not request a fee waiver of the immigration fees required by Pub. L. 119-21. However, you may request a waiver of the filing fee set by USCIS, if otherwise eligible, while submitting the fee required by Pub. L. 119-21.

Fee Exemptions
Fee-exempt forms and filing categories list $0 as the Filing Fee. You do not need file Form I-912 or make a formal request to qualify for a fee exemption. However, the fee exemptions in this schedule only indicate that the form is free to file. They do not indicate eligibility to file those benefit requests in all circumstances. Eligibility to file a particular benefit request is set forth in the applicable regulations and form instructions.

How to Use the Table Below:
You may search for a specific form by entering a form number, a form name, or a fee in the search box. The forms listed below are generally ordered alphabetically, in ascending order. Forms with various filing fees will be listed more than once to display the different fees for each filing purpose.
